

A WALK THROUGH HISTORY is an independent Russian publishing house specializing in children's books, primarily nonfiction. We have created and designed more than 80 titles. Among them there are books on history and other subjects: railroads, football, theatre, alpinism, mathematics, space travel, paleontology, animals and plants. Founded in 2010, our publishing house has already established a reputation for its original historical series. All our books and games on history provide children with an insight into a specific historical era and give them the opportunity to understand and participate in the events of that time. We believe that active participation is the key to effective learning.

Our mission is to help parents spend quality time with their kids enjoying our excellent books and games.

Our books have won many international awards and have been translated into French, German, Italian, Chinese, Vietnamese and Korean.

ILLUSIONS
I CAN'T BELIEVE MY OWN EYES!

By Asya Kravchenko Drawings by Lidya Lytaeva

"I saw it myself!" - we say and the argument is over. Our eyes – what could be more reliable? But sometimes the eye does not see exactly what actually exists, or it sees something that is not there at all. Sometimes we encounter illusions - tricks that our eyes and brain perform over and over again. It seems that illusions are something exceptional, rare. But that's not true. Under certain conditions, illusions are natural phenomena. This book is about the tricks of our vision. We have collected the most famous and impressive illusions and will try to find an explanation for them. However, some tricks of vision have still not been explained by science and remain a mystery for us to solve.

CELLS WHAT EVERY THING IS MADE OF

By Elina Stoyanova and Nadezhda Potapova

Drawings by Alina Minasian

Cells – surprisingly similar and different in all living things. The one structure that unites a human, a baobab and bacteria in yogurt is the cell. It can live alone, but also loves to gather in large groups, which amazingly make up all of us. How is this done? How does a tiny cell live? Are there differences between whale cells and algae cells? You will find answers to these and many other questions in this book.

NOMADS:

TRADITIONS AND TECHNOLOGY

By Aigul Nigmetova

We are used to thinking that nomads are people who constantly move from place to place, following herds of animals, and live in complete unity with nature. This is true, but only partly. Nomads are herdsmen of the steppes, the far north and deserts, and hunters and gatherers of Africa and Australia, and also wandering craftsmen: gypsies, vanlifers and just people working online and traveling around the world. But no matter what a nomad is, he never stands still and always looks forward. Freedom and nomad are almost synonymous.

The book explores theatre as an elusive, floating art and outlines the evolving dynamics between the actors, director, costume designer, composer and the public. How did the relationship between actor and spectator change with time? This is an illustrated history of theatre from Ancient Greece till the present. Opera and ballet, puppet shows and street theatre, Noh and kabuki theatre, Shakespeare, Stanislavsky and Meyerhold.

WE LIVE IN ANCIENT GREECE

By Andrey Dubrovsky Drawings by Victoria Stebleva

Isn't it amazing that Ancient Greece managed to influence the whole world so powerfully! Democracy, theater, the Olympic Games, philosophy, astronomy, history and mathematics – all of this comes from Ancient Greece, or Hellas, as the Greeks themselves called their country. This is why Greece is called «the cradle of Western civilization».

While other ancient civilizations boasted of the size of their territory and their innumerable armies, the Greecs created their own art, science, sports and politics, and the whole world still uses many of their ideas and inventions.

WE LIVE IN ANCIENT CHINA interactive encyclopedia

By Sergey Dmitriev Drawings by Nadya Davydova

"You have surely heard about China. Many things around you were made there – toys, clothes and your mobile phone. Today China does not seem as strange and faraway as it used to. But do we really know much about this country?" This question opens the book written by a renowned Sinologist, historian Sergey Dmitriev.

The history of China, one of the most ancient civilizations, is like a piece of multicolored Chinese silk – weaved from many threads and events. Now when other ancient civilizations are long gone, their cities ruined and their languages forgotten – the Chinese one still exists and keeps many of its secrets.

WE LIVE IN MEDIEVAL EUROPE

By Andrey Dubrovsky Drawings by Alisa Yufa

The Middle Ages – the most controversial millennium in the history of mankind! This is the world of valiant knights and fair ladies, mighty kings and their loyal vassals, wandering poets and mendicant monks, grandiose castles and Gothic cathedrals. And at the same time, this is a gloomy and dark period, when epidemics and famine raged and ignorance and cruelty reigned everywhere. Let's go visit a monastery and a castle, a noisy city square and a university. We'll sit at the dinner table with lords and peasants, see how artisans work and where the merchants rush, join the ranks of pilgrims and crusaders. We'll see how the map of Europe changed, how states arose and collapsed, how dynasties came and went. We will find out what the medieval man himself was like what he was afraid you see the Middle Ages in all their glory!

HIDE-AND-SEEK PICTURE BOOKS

The inquisitive little pair of mice, named Timka and Tinka, travel through time together with the readers. They have visited the Stone Age, ancient Egypt and Rome and medieval Europe. Here they come to an Egyptian school, look at how a Roman aqueduct is built, and even take part in a tournament. The detailed pictures explain how people used to live in the past, what they were dressed like and what they did. Each page has hidden objects to find. When you have discovered them all you can read about them in the margins.
